Positive Impacts	Negative Impacts
Mental Health: For both victim and perpetrator we offer mediation and support through Glasgow City Council community safety partnership. Disability: Support mechanisms are available to support disabled victims of ASB. The Allocations policy also has the ability to award management transfers to tenants where their health is severely affected. Visual/Hearing Disability: Where the victim or perpetrator have visual or hearing impairments we have access to	Mental Health: The ASB may be as a result of mental health issues. We will work with perpetrators but lack of engagement could be problematic and lead to tenancy enforcement action. The process followed to resolve the ASB may also exacerbate the mental health condition. Older People: In some instances the perpetrator of the ASB may be an older person due to health issues such as dementia. We need to ensure that correct support is put in place and that

	our information to be made available in an accessible format. Sexual Orientation/ Transgender: This Policy and the Harassment Policy have mechanisms in place to deal with hate crime. We have a close working relationship with the local Police and will have intelligence of any issues in the area relating to hate crime incidences. This will enable support to be put in place for our tenants. Minority Ethnic/Religious belief: This Policy and the Harassment Policy have mechanisms in place to deal with hate crime including sectarianism and racial harassment. We have a close working relationship with the local Police and will have intelligence of any issues in the area relating to hate crime incidences. This will enable support to be put in place for our tenants. We also have our documents and website available in a number of different languages for people whose first language isn't English. Older People: An assessment of the level of harm being experienced by an older person will be undertaken. We have information on all our more	robust referral mechanisms are available to the relevant agencies.
